

Membership Guidelines

Open IT For Development overall objective is to help promoting information and communication technology in the following geographical regions: West Africa and Southeast Europe. This can be done by the implementation of sustainable innovative social projects which stimulate entrepreneurship and create a new generation of changemakers.

Open IT For Development is a non-profit organization founded by two professional consultants. The organization is open to associate and donors members wishing to contribute and extend the activity. Thanks to its members, Open IT For Development aims to finance its projects starting from countries such as Senegal, Turkey.

The spirit of Open IT For Development is sourced into the following pillars: Ethics, Commitment, Transparency, Knowledge sharing, Respect.

Your direct contribution to finance the initiatives undertaken by Open IT For Development will help in building a better world. The guideline for contributions is as it follows:

Membership	Enterprise	Foundation	Sponsorship	Individual
Sponsoring members	Free contribution from 200€	Free contribution from 200€	Free contribution from 200€
Associate members				Free contribution from 60€

- Sponsoring members will receive an outbound link from the Open IT For Development website, a certificate of membership, a 15% discount on the organization overall services furnished to its members. Sponsoring members remains the preferred partners to take over any incoming specific need from the organization's customers.
- Associate members will receive a 10% discount on the organization overall services furnished to its members, a certificate of membership and will have a voting right during ordinary general meetings.

The organization offers support and consulting services on economic & legal aspects (Strategy, Marketing, web marketing, New Technologies law, Intellectual Property)

Association Open IT For Development (Rokhaya Barry & Diren Kaplangil, Founders)